

SOCIETY

Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, the recently elected president of Mills College, is being welcomed home after an interesting summer on the Atlantic coast. Dr. Reinhardt was widely entertained throughout the East, particularly at the women's colleges, of which she made a survey in preparation for her new duties. She attended a number of national gatherings, and her presence on the program was hailed by eager audiences.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Miss Callie Parsons of this city and her aunt, Mrs. W. Bannison of San Francisco, sailed on the steamer Matsonia yesterday for Honolulu, where Miss Parsons will visit her brother, Willard Parsons, a Honolulu businessman. Mr. Parsons formerly lived in San Jose.—San Jose, Cal., Mercury.

LEAVE FOR HAWAII

The Misses Marie and Ruth Pogue, who left Monday for Maui, Hawaii, where they will pass several months with relatives, were tendered a very pleasant reception on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Bell by a number of their many friends of the Presbyterian church. Supper was served on the lawn and the time was passed in conversation and music.—Santa Clara, Cal., News.

Rev. W. H. Fry, wife and family from Honolulu are the guests of Mrs. Fry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Page. While here Dr. Fry preached Sunday morning in the Methodist church, giving many interesting details in regard to life in the southern islands. He is in charge of the Methodist work in the Hawaiian Islands.—Kennewick, Wash., Courier.

PLEASURE TRIP

Miss Agnes B. Todd left yesterday for Honolulu, joining Miss Mada Dexter, who preceded her last week, and after a few weeks of sightseeing, returns to San Francisco, then leaving for the eastern markets to purchase the latest in millinery creations. She returns early in September.—Prescott, Ariz., Journal-Miner.

EXPECTED SOON IN NORTH

Mrs. H. R. Hitchcock and her daughter, Miss Ruth Hitchcock, are expected soon in San Francisco from Honolulu. Mrs. Hitchcock left Santa Barbara a short time ago for Honolulu, where she met her daughter, who is returning from Canton, China. Upon their arrival in San Francisco they will visit there for a few days before coming south to their home in this city. Miss Hitchcock will remain here for a month or more before returning to her mission in China.—Santa Barbara, Cal., News.

Mr. and Mrs. King of Honolulu and Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson of Fresno motored over and called on Mrs. Mace and other old-time friends yesterday. Mrs. King is the daughter of the late Thomas Ripperdan and has not been here since childhood.—Madera, Cal., Tribune.

Mrs. A. G. Curtis, Miss Edna Curtis, J. P. Rego, Mrs. R. Janowitz and J. G. Silva were arrivals at the Palace hotel yesterday from the Hawaiian Islands.—San Francisco Examiner.

SALES FOR HONOLULU

Miss Thelma Byles, who has been with her grandmother attending the local high school, sailed from San Francisco today for Honolulu to join her mother.—Santa Cruz, Cal., News.

Naval Constructor and Mrs. James Reed gave a dinner before the hop last Wednesday, a few guests being invited to meet Mrs. Reed's brother, Mr. Edward Malby of Philadelphia. Mr. Malby graduated this year from Pennsylvania State College and arrived last week to spend some time with his family.

Those present were the Misses Dorothy Bennett and Mabel Updegraff, Mr. Malby, Surgeon J. O. Downey and Constructor and Mrs. Reed. The party attended the dance later in the evening.—San Francisco Examiner.

Mr. Joseph Arthur Merrill of Great Falls, Montana, will arrive here shortly on a visit of several weeks. While here he will be the house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Collins at their Kaimuki home.

COAST SOCIETY AT HOCKEY GAME

Society, as well represented at the hockey game between the Polo and Olympic clubs at the Ice Palace Tuesday evening. Two boxes were occupied by Messrs. and Mesdames J. Chever Cowdin, Frederick MacNair, William H. Taylor, Jr., and Augustus Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton La Montagne entertained several friends at a box party, and Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Whitman were hosts at a dinner followed by a box party. Malcolm Whitman arrived a few days ago from the East and joined his family at Burlingame. This was his first visit to the skating rink.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Knight and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Foster Dutton left Burlingame Tuesday to motor to the Webber Lake Country Club. They are going up for the trout fishing, which is reported to be excellent this year.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Capt. and Mrs. Chalmers Hall of the U. S. A. came here on the last transport from Honolulu and are stopping at the Bellevue hotel.—San Francisco Examiner.

Mrs. Victor Houston, wife of Commander Houston of the St. Louis, will be here shortly and will be heartily greeted by old friends. She was Pinso Brickwood.

Judge William Whitney leaves on the Wilhelmina for the coast. Mrs. Whitney is already on the mainland, having gone about two months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Bell, who are very pleasantly remembered by older Honoluluans, returned on Tuesday's Wilhelmina.

Mr. Harold V. Gear and his bride of a few weeks came in in the Wilhelmina to make their home in Honolulu.

Judge and Mrs. William B. Lymer, who have been on the east coast for much of the past four months, returned on the Wilhelmina.

Miss Dorothy Quarles, youngest daughter of Justice and Mrs. Ralph Quarles, left on the Laurine for the States.

Mrs. L. L. McCandless and Miss Lola McCandless were home-coming passengers on the Wilhelmina on Tuesday.

Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Bertram G. Rivenburgh. Mrs. Rivenburgh's father, Dr. Donald McLennan, passed away Monday. He was well known throughout the island.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Spreckels are now established in their home on Long Island. It is known as the Sherry place and is famous for its beauty and frescoes. Miss Ruby Bond of this city is visiting them for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Eddy, who are occupying Pinard cottage, No. 3, at Newport, are frequent visitors at Sherry place.—San Francisco Examiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Baldwin of Honolulu are visiting Mrs. Baldwin's mother, Mrs. Edward Kittredge, at the Fairmont hotel.—San Francisco Examiner.

Constructor and Mrs. Gleason honored Commander and Mrs. Mark St. Clair with a dinner party recently. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis have just taken up residence on Mare Island, the former taking charge of the naval magazine Monday after giving up command of the Buffalo to Lieut. Comdr. Pope Washington. The guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gleason were Commander and Mrs. J. M. Reeves, Pay Inspector Cheatham, Civil Engineer and Mrs. Carl A. Carlson and Capt. and Mrs. J. F. Frazier. All visited the dance after dinner.—San Francisco Examiner.

FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
FORT SHAFTER, Aug. 1.—There were numerous supper and dinner parties at Fort Shafter last Friday evening before the hop and one of the largest of the former was that at which Miss Deede Rosenbaum entertained for about 40 guests. Supper was served at small tables which were placed on the lanai and in the living rooms. Among those who enjoyed this delightful affair were Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred Rockwood; Col. and Mrs. Roberts, Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Lyon, Lieut. and Mrs. Carl A. Hardigg, Lieut. and Mrs. George M. Haloran, Lieut. and Mrs. F. A. Barker, Lieut. and Mrs. Paul R. Manchester, Lieut. and Mrs. Woodfin G. Jones, Lieut. and Mrs. John S. Sullivan, Miss Eame Damon, Lieut. Carl A. Cohen, Miss Dorothy Harker, Dr. Harry Deiber and many others.

Another large and enjoyable supper party on the same evening was that at which Maj. and Mrs. Michael J. Lenihan and Miss Catherine Lenihan entertained at their home in the main quarters building and attended the dance given by the 2nd Infantry to the departing members of the 32nd Infantry, which was a most enjoyable affair. Among Maj. and Mrs. Lenihan's guests were Gen. and Mrs. Samuel I. Johnson, Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas J. Camp, Lieut. and Mrs. Douglas T. Greene, Miss Ruth McChesney, Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hayes, Lieut. Charles Lyman, Miss Martha McChesney, Miss Marie Ballenroe, Miss Catherine Lenihan, Maj. Weigel, Mr. Foster Horner, Lieut. Edward F. Witsel, Mr. Cornell Franklin and others.

Col. and Mrs. Walker B. Atkinson entertained informally at dinner before the hop for several of the younger set.

Lieut. and Mrs. Charles Wyman had as their dinner guest Friday evening before the hop Miss Little and Lieut.

George C. Keleher of Schofield Barracks.

Another jolly dinner party in the cantonment before the dance last Friday was that at which Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred L. Hobley entertained in honor of Capt. and Mrs. Albert P. Clark, who leave on the August transport for the mainland.

Increase in watermelon acreage and a slight decrease in that of cantaloupes this year is reported by the Department of Agriculture.
